As a San Diego native, Colton has developed an extensive network of local business professionals. He is able to quickly recognize the needs of clients and adapt to best serve those needs. Colton's highly refined knowledge of San Diego's commercial real estate markets allows him to help clients succeed in achieving their real estate goals.

Colton currently works on Pacific Coast Commercial's Private Investment Team with Tommas Golia and Jason Vieira who specialize in the sales and leasing of Central San Diego and Coastal commercial real estate. Colton's role in the team is heavily focused on performing market specific research and procuring tenants and buyers.
